

Worksheet 6

Review of future tenses – will, won't, going to and shall.

1 Complete these two conversations.

ANNA: I hope I (1) will/won't do well in my exams.

BILL: Don't worry. I'm sure you (2) will/won't have any problems.

ANNA: I hope so too, but I think it (3) will/won't be difficult.

BILL: I'm sure it (4) will/won't be as hard as you think.

ANNA: Well, I (5) will/won't be very happy if it isn't. Wish me luck.

BILL: Good luck! I (6) will/won't keep my fingers crossed for you.

BILL: (7) I'll/I'm going to see the dentist tomorrow.

ANNA: Have you got an appointment?

BILL: Yes, at ten o'clock.

ANNA: I think (8) I'll/I'm going to come with you.

BILL: But he (9) won't/isn't going to see you!

ANNA: Why not?

BILL: Because you haven't got an appointment.

2 Complete the questions using will, won't, going to and shall and the pronoun in brackets.

1 How _____ know when you've arrived? (we)

2 _____ help you? (I)

3 _____ be late, will you? (you)

4 What are _____ do tomorrow? (you)

5 _____ wish me good luck for the competition? (you)

6 _____ tell him before he finds out? (you)

3 Put the words in the correct order to make sentences.

a be / I'll / not / to / try

b visit / to / my / I'm / going / friends

c because / find / he / No, / out / won't d okay / No, / manage / it's / I'll

e get / phone / there / We/ we / when / will / you

f Yes, / wait / until / to / starts / it / I'm / going / but 4 Match the sentences from exercise 3 (a-f) with the questions from exercise 2 (1-6) to make six short dialogues.