

Writing Exciting Topic Sentences (2)

Directions:

1. Write a topic sentence for a, b, and c.
2. Compare yours with the three samples.
3. Edit yours (if needed) to make it even more exciting.
  - a. A Day at the Mall
  - b. Some things I'd like to change about me are...
  - c. What accomplishment makes you most proud?

a. Describe a day at the mall.

Topic Sentence: _____
_____

b. Some things I'd like to change about me are...

Topic Sentence: _____
_____

c. What accomplishment makes you most proud?

Topic Sentence: _____
_____

Sample Topic Sentences

A Day at the Mall

1. The most exciting day at the Mall I ever had was last Saturday.
2. What do you enjoy most about the Mall?
3. Meeting interesting people, shopping in stores, and eating tasty food are just three of the many things you can do at the mall.

Some things I'd like to change about me are...

1. There are several things I'd like to change about me.
2. Why would I want to change anything about me?
3. I'd get more freedom, my life would be better, and I would feel happier by changing these things about me.

What accomplishment makes you most proud?

1. I've accomplished something that makes me feel very proud.
2. What is the accomplishment that I feel most proud of?
3. I got straight A's on my report card, graduated, but nothing makes me more proud than earning my own money to buy my first car.

THE THREE WAYS WE DID IT IN EACH EXAMPLE:

1. Just write your statement about the topic.
2. Ask a question about the topic.
3. Give 3 juicy details first that support your statement about the topic